144	Section 2. Amend §1109, Title 30 of the Delaware Code by making deletions as shown by strikethrough and
145	insertions as shown by underline as follows:
146	§ 1109 Itemized deductions [For application of this section, see 66 Del. Laws, c. 86, § 8]
147	(a) General. — In determining taxable income under this chapter, in lieu of the standard deduction provided by § 1108 of
148	this title, a resident individual may elect to deduct the sum of the itemized deductions claimed on the federal income tax
149	return as shall be permitted under the laws of the United States as the same are or shall become effective for any taxable
150	year in determining the federal taxable income, or, if the person does not itemize deductions or elects the credit for foreign
151	taxes paid on the federal return, the person may deduct the sum of the itemized deductions to which the person would have
152	been entitled had the person itemized the deductions (including the deduction for foreign taxes paid) on the federal return:
153	(1) Reduced by:
154	a. The amount thereof representing income taxes imposed by this State;
155	b. The amount of any income tax imposed on the person for the taxable year by another state of the United States
156	or a political subdivision thereof or the District of Columbia on income derived from sources therein if the person
157	elected to take such amount as a credit in accordance with § 1111(a) of this title; and
158	(2) Increased by:
159	a. An amount equal to the excess of the state employee automobile mileage reimbursement allowance over the
160	standard mileage rate allowed as a charitable deduction for federal income tax purposes for unreimbursed
161	automobile transportation expense incurred by an individual while serving as a volunteer for a charitable
162	organization as defined in § 170(c), Internal Revenue Code [26 U.S.C. § 170(c)]; and
163	b. In the case of a self-employed individual, the amount paid during the taxable year for insurance which
164	constitutes medical care for the taxpayer, the taxpayer's spouse and dependents, less the amount allowed the
165	taxpayer as a deduction pursuant to § 162(l)(26 U.S.C. § 162(l)) or successor provision of the Internal Revenue
166	Code. For purposes of this subparagraph, "self-employed taxpayer" shall mean a resident individual whose gross
167	income is more than one-half derived from a trade, business or profession and not derived as an employee. Income
168	in the nature of interest, dividends or other investment income shall not constitute self-employment income. No
169	self-employed taxpayer whose total cost of insurance for health care for the taxpayer, spouse and dependents
